TEACHING EXPERIENCE

Houghton College

Adjunct Instructor

2017-2018

This role requires that I develop the syllabus, exams and course schedule and administer all grades for an American History survey. My students are non-traditional populations (re-entry and refugees)

The University at Buffalo

Teaching Assistant to Dr. David Herzberg

2016

Taught two individual recitations, collaborated on curriculum and exams, proctored exams, graded all written work and exams and held individual office hours for an American History (1865-today) course

The University at Buffalo

Teaching Assistant to Dr. Jonathan Dewald

2015-2016

Taught three individual recitations, collaborated on curriculum and exams, proctored exams, graded all written work and exams and held individual office hours for a Western Civilization course

RELATED EXPERIENCE

Center for Excellence in Writing, The University at Buffalo

Writing Consultant August 2016-Current

Work with university students to edit and improve academic papers, articles and dissertations. ELL students comprise the majority of my clients

Houghton College

Academic Mentor September 2017-Current

Assist and mentor resettled refugee students enrolled in the Associate's Degree program with a variety of subjects and assignments

The Health Foundation for Western and Central New York

Policy Fellow August 2016-July 2017

In this role, I reviewed public policies and created policy landscapes and briefs for internal and external audiences. Most of my research was dedicated to analyzing how several iterations of the proposed AHCA would impact vulnerable populations in Western New York
